(U) Coalinga – Mexican Prison Gang Charged With Coordinating Methamphetamine Sales from Prison

(U) Two weeks after federal officials announced charges against members of the Aryan Brotherhood prison gang in an alleged conspiracy to order murders, sell drugs and smuggle cell phones, new charges have been filed against another prison gang believed to be coordinating methamphetamine sales from a Central Valley prison. Federal court documents unsealed Tuesday charge 21 defendants – some of them allegedly operating out of their cells at Pleasant Valley State Prison in Coalinga – with conspiracy to sell and possess methamphetamine. The charges, filed in two criminal complaints, are aimed at crippling the operations of the Nuestra Familia gang, which operates out of Pleasant Valley and is believed to be flooding Kings and Tulare counties with sales of methamphetamine, cocaine and marijuana.

(U) San Diego – 50,000 American License Plate Numbers Available on Dark Web Due to Breach

(U) At least 50,000 American license plate numbers have been made available on the dark web after a company hired by Customs and Border Protection was at the center of a major data breach, according to CNN analysis of the hacked data. What's more, the company was never authorized to keep the information, the agency told CNN. The admission raises questions about whose responsible when the US government hires contractors to surveil citizens, but then those contractors mishandle the data.

(U) Oregon – 645,000 Clients Affected in Department of Human Services Data Breach

(U) Salem – Oregon Department of Human Services officials say they are notifying about 645,000 clients whose personal information is at risk from a January data breach. People affected were enrolled in the department's welfare and children services programs at the time of the breach. Officials said the compromised data includes personal health information, but its unknown if was viewed or inappropriately used. The breach happened during an email "phishing" attempt that targeted the department on 8 January. Nine employees opened the email and clicked on a link that gave the perpetrator access to their email accounts.

(U) Pennsylvania – $1 Billion of Cocaine Seized at Philadelphia Port

(U) Philadelphia – Federal authorities found and seized shipping containers full of illegal drugs at a Philadelphia port in what federal authorities describe as the largest seizure in the region's history. A senior law enforcement official said more than 15,500 kilos of cocaine were found in seven containers, which were found aboard a cargo ship, the MSC Gayane that previously stopped in Colombia, Chile, Panama and the Bahamas. Sources told NBC10 the cocaine was not meant for Philadelphia but instead for the Netherlands and France. At least two crew members of the Gayane have been charged with trafficking, according to a complaint filed Tuesday by the US Attorney's Office. Other crew members were also allegedly involved, the complaint charges.
